1. Introduction

1.1 Background

The National Aeronautical Information Processing System (NAIPS) provides a central database of Meteorological, NOTAM and chart information. The system is used by the Airservices Australia to provide pre-flight and in-flight Briefings and to accept and distribute flight notifications

Access to the NAIPS Internet Service (NIS) is available via the link on the Airservices home page <http://www.airservicesaustralia.com> or directly via the Briefing Home page <http://www.airservicesaustralia.com/flight-briefing/>.

Information available from NAIPS includes Australian and International NOTAM, status of Restricted Areas, Meteorological information (Graphical Area Forecasts, AREA QNH, TTF/METAR/SPECI, TAF, AIRMET and SIGMET), ATIS, GPS RAIM availability, First-light / Last-light and Meteorological charts. MET and NOTAM information is available on all Australian locations and selected locations outside Australia.

Flight notification details can be submitted through NAIPS in ICAO, Domestic or SARTIME format.

NOTAM request details can also be submitted for those users who are Authorised NOTAM Originators.

1.3 Access

To be provided with access to the NIS NOTAM functions, registered NAIPS users must be members of a NOTAM Authorised Group. For information on setup, refer to the references in section 1.2 or contact the Australian NOTAM Office:

1.4 Connection - PC and Browser Setup

To access the NIS you must have a current version browser installed on your PC, such as Internet Explorer, Firefox or Chrome. The PC must have access to the Internet through an account with an Internet Service Provider (ISP) or a permanent connection.

Note: Compatibility with a mobile device is not guaranteed, however setting your mobile device web browser to 'Always accept cookies' may assist you to use the site.

For Microsoft Internet Explorer, the 'Tools | Internet Options | Privacy Tab | Advanced' item should be set as follows (if present):

- Always allow cookies

For Microsoft Internet Explorer, the 'Tools | Internet Options | General Tab | Browser History | Settings' item should be set as follows (if present):

- Set to automatically

A useful tip for the items in the Documents and Downloads menu is to right click on an item, select "Open in New Window" and resize the window to display simultaneously with the relevant NIS page. E.g. when creating an NOTAM Request, it may be useful to display the NOTAM User Guide alongside the NOTAM form.

Requested information on forms can be entered in upper or lower case characters and the system will convert case as required.

Passwords are case sensitive.
